

YOUTH SPIRITUAL GIFTS INVENTORY

This document has been excerpted from A Guide to Discovering Your Spiritual Gifts with the permission of its authors, Dr. Mark A. McCleary and Pastor Terrence D. Griffith

God has blessed each believer with Spiritual Gifts

DO YOU KNOW WHAT SPIRITUAL GIFTS GOD HAS GIVEN YOU?

This Youth Spiritual Gifts Test will help you determine what Spiritual Gift(s) and/or Special Talent(s) God has given you. This test covers 26 Spiritual Gifts and is created for Christian youth and young adults. If you have been a Christian for a few years, you should use your personal experiences as the basis for your responses. If you have only recently become a Christian, then your responses should be based on how well each statement describes the desire of your heart (even if you have not yet done what the statement talks about).

For the best results answer each statement below according to who you are, not who you would like to be or think you ought to be.

FOLLOW THESE STEPS AS YOU TAKE THIS INVENTORY

This survey will likely take about 20-25 minutes, so be patient and be sure to allocate sufficient time before you begin. Each of the 130 questions is very important, so try not to miss any.

1. Begin with prayer for guidance of the Holy Spirit.
2. Respond to all statements/questions quickly with your first feeling by checking the appropriate box according to very much, sometimes, a little, or not at all. If a something does not apply to you, the answer is “not at all.”
3. Read each statement with focused attention then answer according to who you are, not who you would like to be or think you ought to be. How true are these statements of you? What has been your experience? What do others tell you? To what degree do these statements reflect your usual tendencies?
4. When you are finished click the Score Test button at the end to view your results. You will also receive an email of your results for your records and further study.

DEFINITIONS AND SCRIPTURES FOR SPIRITUAL GIFTS

1. Administration—The ability that God gives to certain believers to organize and coordinate the Church toward its divinely appointed mission. It includes the ability to plan, launch, and complete ministry-related projects to fulfill the needs of God's cause. (Read Luke 14:28-30; Acts 6:1-7; 1 Corinthians 12:4, 28; Titus 1:5).
2. Apostle—The ability God gives to certain believers to go where He sends them to preach/teach to people the truth about God. These individuals are often sent to areas where culture and language differences might be evident. (Read Romans 1:1; Galatians 1:1; 1 Timothy 1:1; 1 Peter 1:1).
3. Celibacy—The ability God gives to certain believers to abstain from sexual interaction willingly and cheerfully, and to live victoriously overcoming sexual temptations. (Read Matthew 19:11, 12; 1 Corinthians 7:7, 8).
4. Discerning of Spirits—The ability God gives to certain believers to distinguish between truth and error and between the influence of the Holy Spirit and evil spirits. (Read Matthew 16:21-23; Acts 5:1-11; 16:16-18; 1 John 4:1-6).
5. Evangelist—The ability God gives to certain believers to share the gospel with unbelievers in such a way that men and women become Jesus' disciples and responsible members of the Church. (Read Acts 8:5, 6, 26-40; 14:21; Ephesians 4:11-14; 2 Timothy 4:5).
6. Exhortation—The ability God gives to certain believers to minister words of comfort, consolation, and counsel to other believers of the body in such a way that they feel helped. (Read Mark 12:41-44; Romans 12:8; 2 Corinthians 9:2-8).
7. Exorcism—The ability God gives to certain believers to detect and expel demons or evil spirits. (Read Mark 5:1-15; Luke 10:17-20; Acts 8:5-8; 16:16-18).
8. Faith—The ability God gives to certain believers to believe, trust, and hope in His word of promise and to demonstrate confidence and inspire other believers to accept and act on God's will and purposes. (Read Acts 27:21-25; Romans 4:18-21; Hebrews 11).
9. Giving—The ability God gives to certain believers to contribute their material resources to the ministry of the Lord liberally and cheerfully. (Read Mark 12:41-44; Romans 12:8; 2 Corinthians 8:1-7; 9:2-8).
10. Healing—The ability God gives to certain believers to serve as healing mediators for God to cure illness and restore health. Their service might be apart from the use of natural or medical professional means. (Read Acts 3:1-10; 5:12-16; 9:32-35; 1 Corinthians 12:9, 28).

11. Helps—The ability God gives to certain believers to use their talents to assist in facilitating practical needs of others and thereby empower them to develop effectiveness in expressing their own spiritual gifts. (Mark 15:40, 41; Luke 8:2, 3; Acts 9:36; Romans 16:1, 2).
12. Hospitality—The ability God gives to certain believers to demonstrate a receptive disposition in various settings by offering meaningful welcome, information, and basic assistance. (Read Acts 16:14, 15; Romans 12:9-13; Hebrews 13:1, 2; 1 Peter 4:9).
13. Intercession—The ability God gives to certain believers to pray compassionately for others and to observe specific answers to their prayers. (Read Acts 12:7-12; 1 Timothy 2:1, 2; Colossians 1:9-12; 4:12; James 5:14-16).
14. Interpretation—The ability God gives to certain believers to interpret tongues and potentially confusing information so that others can understand and be edified. (Read 1 Corinthians 12:10, 30; 14:13, 26-28).
15. Knowledge—The ability God gives to certain believers to discover, analyze, and clarify information which is pertinent to the well-being of the Church. (Read Acts 5:1-11; 1 Corinthians 2:14; 12:8; Colossians 2:2, 3).
16. Leadership—The ability God gives to certain believers to direct and inspire others to minister effectively and is exercised with the attitude of humility. (Read Acts 7:10; 15:7-11; Romans 12:8; 1 Timothy 5:17).
17. Mercy—The ability God gives to certain believers to comfort or help those who are in need of restoration. A special sensitivity toward persons who need reconciliation and revival. (Read Matthew 25:34-40; Mark 9:41; Luke 10:33-35; Acts 11:28-30).
18. Miracles—The ability God gives to certain believers to perform powerful acts which glorify Him and edify His mission of redemption. (Read Acts 9:36-42; 19:11-20; Romans 15:18, 19; 2 Corinthians 12:12).
19. Missionary—The ability God gives to certain believers to share His mission of salvation cross-culturally, and in areas that might be away from their geographical origin and dark to the light of truth. (Read Acts 8:4; 13:2, 3; Romans 10:15; 1 Corinthians 9:19-23).
20. Pastor—The ability God gives to certain believers to shepherd other believers for their spiritual welfare, through counseling and encouraging believers to walk with Christ and discover and develop their spiritual gifts. (Read John 10:1-18; 1 Timothy 3:1-7; 1 Peter 5:1-3).
21. Prophecy—The ability God gives to certain believers to receive and communicate His message, so that hearers will be challenged to consider and respond in faith, and might include predictive content. (Read Luke 7:26, 27; Acts 15:32; 21:9-11; Romans 12:6).

- 22. Service—The ability God gives to certain believers to engage and assist individuals and groups in fulfilling their needs. The ability to make prudent use of resources to meet those needs in practical ways, without demand for distinction or reward. (Read Acts 6:1-7; Galatians 6:2, 10; Titus 3:14).
- 23. Teaching—The ability God gives to certain believers to instruct and communicate His word effectively. (Read Acts 18:24-28; 20:20, 21; Ephesians 4:11-14).
- 24. Tongues—The ability God gives to certain believers to speak another language not previously learned to glorify God and authenticate the message of salvation. (Read Mark 16:17; Acts 2:1-3; 10:44-46; 19:1; 1 Corinthians 14:13-19).
- 25. Voluntary Poverty—The ability God gives to certain believers to sacrifice material comfort and or luxury and adopt a simpler lifestyle in order to serve Him more effectively. (Read Acts 2:44, 45; 4:34-37; 2 Corinthians 6:10; 8:9).
- 26. Wisdom—The ability God gives to certain believers to apply knowledge or information for its greater practical benefit and impart wise counsel from God's word. (Read Acts 6:3, 10; 1 Corinthians 2:1-13; James 1:5, 6; 2 Peter 3:15, 16).

DISCOVERING YOUR SPIRITUAL GIFTS BY PINPOINTING YOUR GIFT CLUSTER

You will find the following Spiritual Gifts Discovery Inventory helpful in pointing out your cluster of gifts. Richard F. Houts prepared the questionnaire originally. It was later modified by C. Peter Wagner, formerly of Fuller Evangelistic Association, and then further adapted and expanded by Mark A. McCleary and Terrence D. Griffith (1997) in the first version of this Guide. The following survey is the latest amended and more comprehensive edition of Houts' original questionnaire.

Follow these steps as you take this inventory:

1. Begin with prayer for guidance of the Holy Spirit.
2. Answer each of the statements by checking the appropriate box according to much, some, little, or not at all.
3. Read each statement with focused attention, then answer as you truly think or feel it applies to you at that moment.

SPIRITUAL GIFTS INVENTORY

Indicate by a mark (check or X) that the statement has been satisfactorily experienced in your life or if you truly think, believe, or feel you have this ability.

PINPOINT YOUR SPIRITUAL GIFT CLUSTER

After you have tabulated your scores for each gift, look for the highest scores. These scores will pinpoint the spiritual gift cluster in which your gifts are most likely to be found. Write in the PRIMARY section below the gifts that received the top three scores. In the SECONDARY section list the three gifts with the next highest scores. If there are more than three for each section, you may add up to two additional lines for each section.

REFLECTION

Evaluate yourself in the light of the discovery above. Does this correlate with what you previously thought about your abilities? Is there a gift pinpointed that surprised you? Do you see any new possibilities for ministry? How do you think you can best use your gift discovery? Pray about this discovery asking God to show you how you can best develop and use your gifts to help in building His work.

HOW DO YOU APPLY YOUR GIFT(S)?

Matching Gifts with Church Ministries and Roles: The following list serves as a sample template for matching spiritual gifts with church ministries or offices. A WORD OF WISDOM

Do not consider this guide as the final word in discovering your spiritual gift(s). Continue to study, pray, and work your gift(s). Discuss them with other faithful members of the church. Talk to the pastor, elders, and spiritual leaders of your church about your discovery. Use the abilities you know you have, and you will acquire increased assurance as you continue to discover your spiritual gift(s). What you have discovered is very likely the area in which you should focus your ministry activity until God gives you a new revelation.

USE YOUR GIFT OR YOU WILL LOSE IT

Use what you already know and have just discovered, and, through it, God will bless you and others. It is not enough to know what your gift(s) is/are. But it is very important to develop your gift(s) and use it/them to the glory of God and the salvation of your family, friends, neighbors, and others.

Talents used are talents multiplied. Success is not the result of chance or of destiny; it is the outworking of God's own providence, the reward of faith and discretion, of virtue and persevering effort. The Lord desires us to use every gift we have, and if we do this, we shall have greater gifts to use. He does not supernaturally endow us with the qualifications we lack, but while we use that which we have, He will work with us to increase and strengthen every faculty. By every whole-hearted, earnest sacrifice for the Master's service our powers will increase. (White, 1900: 353-4)
